CCCM 2018 Highlights

- Member of the Child Care Advocacy Association of Canada (Renamed “Childcare Now!”)
- Make History Poverty partner
- Public education and outreach
- Supported campaign for a childcare centre at the Université de Saint-Boniface

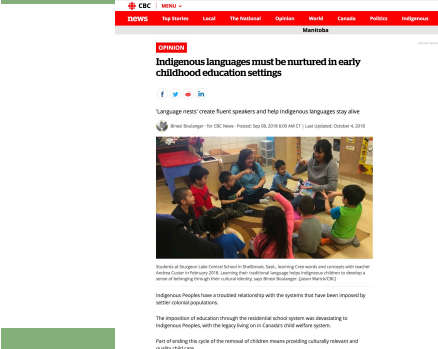

Collaboration

- Worked with a summer student at the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives (CCPA) to produce documents.

– Fast Facts: Indigenous language revitalization and child care

Outreach to new government

- New government has been slow to meet with us
- Met with Minister Stefanson on Oct 15
- Major concerns: Provincial budget and failure to implement 2016 Commission

Troublesome Provincial Policy

- Failure to increase subsidy eligibility
- Lack of a capital call in 2018
 - No new builds or facility expansions
- Growing number of unfunded spaces
- $2 million give-away to private businesses to start-up more expensive workplace care
- Weak use of new federal dollars
